MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM:

Acting Director, Office of External Affairs

SUBJECT: Invitation to Address the National Defense University

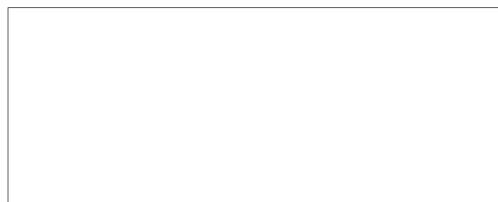

1. Action Requested: Accept or decline this invitation to address the National Defense University on Wednesday, 15 December at 10:15 a.m. in the Dwight D. Eisenhower Hall at Fort McNair.

2. Background: Lt. Gen. John Pustay, President of the National Defense University, has invited you to address the Industrial College of the Armed Forces and the National War College which are the two senior colleges of the National Defense University. The focus of the University is the professional study of national security, the formulation and the conduct of national strategy, and the relationships between resources management and policy objectives. Within this framework, your comments on key national security policy issues would be extremely valuable to the students. They are also interested in the major issues facing the Intelligence Community and what we are attempting to do about them. Of course they would welcome you discussing any subject that you prefer in your opening remarks. If possible, they would like you to lecture about 45 minutes, followed by a 30-minute question and answer period. The audience will consist of about 450 students (75 percent military), faculty, staff and research fellows, all of whom have Top Secret clearances. The lecture will be off the record. Previous distinguished speakers have been Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger, Department of State Under Secretary for Political Affairs Lawrence S. Eagleburger, and Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff John W. Vessey.

Following the auditorium presentation you are invited to remain for lunch at the McNair Club with representatives of the University and its constituent colleges. Fifteen to twenty people with the President, Vice President, Commandants and selected students would attend in order to continue dialogue with you.

If you are unable to accept this invitation, you may wish to have the DDCI participate in your behalf.

3. Recommendation: None; indicate your preference and have Public Affairs respond on your behalf.

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

NATIONAL DEFENSE UNIVERSITY
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20319REPLY TO ATTENTION OF:

NDU-P

12 October 1982

OEXA 82-2451

The Honorable William J. Casey
Director, Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

It is my pleasure to extend to you a most cordial invitation to address the combined students, faculty and staff of the National Defense University at 10:15 a.m. on Wednesday, 15 December 1982, in Dwight D. Eisenhower Hall, Fort McNair. As you may know, Mr. Hayes of my staff has been in touch with your staff concerning such a visit and we are very hopeful that your schedule will permit you to accept.

The mission-specific focus of the University is the professional study of national security, the formulation and the conduct of national strategy, and the relationships between resources management and policy objectives. Within this framework, your comments on key national security policy issues would be extremely valuable. We are of course interested in the major issues facing the intelligence community and what you are attempting to do about them. Having said all this, please be assured that we will welcome your discussing the subject as you prefer to do it in your opening remarks.

Our lecture periods run about 45 minutes followed by questions and answers of approximately 30 minutes. This pattern, of course, can be altered as you wish, perhaps a shorter lecture and more time for questions. This audience will consist of about 450 students (75 percent military), faculty, staff, and research fellows, all of whom have a Top Secret clearance.

Following the auditorium presentation, we would be delighted if you could remain for lunch at the McNair Club with representatives of the University and its constituent colleges. This is a special bonus for a few students selected to continue the dialogue with the guest speaker.

I very much look forward to your reply, and greatly hope that the combined classes of the Industrial College of the Armed Forces and the National War College will have the pleasure and honor of welcoming you here on 15 December.

Very respectfully,

John S. Pustay
